WHEREAS, the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America was written by Francis Bellamy in 1892; and

WHEREAS, in his memory and honor, the flag that flies over the United States Capitol each May 18, his birthday, is awarded to an outstanding and representative secondary school of a chosen state; and

WHEREAS, the Lead High School has been selected as the recipient of the 29th Annual Bellamy Flag Award and will be the standard bearer for all South Dakota Schools for a fifty year period; and

WHEREAS, the acceptance of responsibility and the excellent community spirit displayed by those associated with the school serve as an inspiration to the people of the community and merit our recognition;

NOW THEREFORE, I, Frank L. Farrar, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby designate the week of October 11-17, 1970, to be and I urge the people of South Dakota to join me in congratulating the student body, faculty and administration of Lead High School on the receipt of this high honor and in expressing appreciation for the distinction they have brought to our state.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 1st day of September, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and seventy.
